

Historic Mill Site May Be Location for Local Park

The historic site of the Vallejo Mill at the entrance to Niles Canyon may become the property of Washington Township to be preserved and improved as a public park, it was indicated at this week's meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

It was reported unofficially that the San Francisco Water Department would consider sale of the 9-acre parcel of land at the old mill site to the Alameda County Water District. Purchase price would be nominal.

CRACKDOWN ON GAMBLING LAWS CONTINUES HERE

The fact that gambling and lotteries in this township will not be tolerated was further borne out last Friday when Judge E. A. Quaresma, in Niles Justice Court, assessed fines totaling $250 or 50 days in jail against a San Francisco man.

Latest to feel the sting of stiff court fines here was David Donald Armos, who through his attorney, Joseph Schenone, Hayward, entered a plea of guilty to operating a series of punchboards in Decoto.

ATTORNEY STUNNED

Sheriff's deputies spotted the punchboards in several Decoto markets last Wednesday and warned the businessmen, who had been told by Armos that they were perfectly legal, to take his license number and notify the sheriff's department when he came to pick up his money.

Armos arrived in town minutes later and upon being told of the visit of officers got in his car and headed north. He was nabbed in a road block just north of the Hayward city limits.

Attorney Schenone, after pleading for leniency for his client, was stunned by Judge Quaresma's fine of $125 on each of the two counts. After a whispered conference with his client, Schenone asked if the alternative sentences of one day for each $5 of the fine would run concurrently on each of the counts. He was assured by Judge Quaresma that the sentences would run consecutively, that is, the sentence on the second count would begin after Armos had served the time for the first count.

MORE TRIALS SCHEDULED

The defendant then asked, and was granted, three days to raise the money to pay the fine.

Just two weeks ago, in the court of Judge Allen G. Norris in Centerville, six men, charged with violation of the gambling laws, paid fines amounting to $1,800. Seven other men are yet to face trial in Centerville on a similar charge.

SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED BY ALVISO SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Board of Trustees of the Alviso Elementary School District at their meeting this week authorized the calling of a special election seeking a tax boost of 61 cents. James Nunes, school principal, said that the election will probably be called in December, or as soon as legal procedures can be accomplished.

TWO PROPOSALS

Two separate proposals will be submitted to the voters. One will call for a 35 cent tax increase for maintenance and operation expenses and the other would propose a $50,000 bond issue for building expenses. The bond issue would add a 26 cent tax increase.

The Mothers' Club of the school has pledged an all-out campaign to back the passage of the two proposals. Officers of the club who will head the campaign are: Mrs. Mary Bettencourt, president; Mrs. Eleanor Azevedo, vice-president; Mrs. Victor Silva, treasurer; and Mrs. Jean Bettencourt, secretary.

DEFEATED LAST YEAR

The district held an election last term but the proposed tax boost was defeated. The defeat of the last request for added income had resulted in the cost of the cafeteria lunches for the youngsters being boosted from 20 to 25 cents. However, a $300 donation made by the Mothers' Club this week has resulted in the cost of lunches being reduced.

TWO PROSPECTS FOR PASTOR'S POST AT NILES CHURCH

Dr. W. F. Lamoreux, accompanied by several other members of the cabinet of the Niles Congregational Church, this Sunday will motor to Porterville to interview a possible successor to the Rev. Donald Kirkbride, who is leaving at the end of this month for a post at Winslow, Washington.

The decision to interview the Porterville minister came after a dinner at the Lamoreux home last Wednesday evening. Present at the dinner were members of the church cabinet, who discussed the prospects of a new minister.

The only other prospect in view at the present time is a young minister from Chicago, who is anxious to get back to the west coast.

Dr. Harley H. Gill, superintendent of Northern Congregational Churches, also present at the dinner at the Lamoreux home, is confident that Niles will be able to find a successor to Rev. Kirkbride before too long a time has elapsed, as there is a fairly constant turnover in the ministerial profession, with ministers giving up posts and taking others for various reasons.

In lieu of a regular pastor, when Rev. Kirkbride leaves, the cabinet members will obtain the services of "supply" pastors to fill the vacancy temporarily.

TO ENLARGE FIRE STATION AT NEWARK

The Newark Fire Department has announced that sleeping quarters to accommodate eight firemen are to be constructed above the present fire station in the near future.

The Board of Commissioners this week approved the building program, which is tentatively estimated to involve about $4,000, according to Fire Chief Joseph Paschote.

Paschote stated that reduction in fire insurance rates should result from the new facilities being added to the fire department. He said that construction would probably not begin until spring.

NEW ROTARY MEMBERS

Three new members were accepted this week by the Niles Rotary Club. They are: Joe Rose, Standard Oil distributor of Irvington; Gerald Sletten of Sletten's Department Store in Niles; and Romeo Brunelli of the Central Chevrolet Company of Centerville.

THE UMPIRE WAS REALLY A ROBBER

The members of the Irvington baseball team journeyed across the bay last Sunday and played the San Quentin prison team.

It was a good game, the localites being nosed out 5 to 3, and although they will soon forget the score, they will always remember some of the comments made by the players and spectators. They went something like this—

One of the prison all-stars stepped to the plate and commented to the Irvington catcher: "Better watch that runner on first—he'll steal second on you—he's stolen everything else."

One of the grey-clad fans, like any other baseball fan, got sore at one of the inmate umpires and shouted, "Robber!"

"Of course he is," agreed a nearby spectator, "how else do you think he got ten years here?"

To one of the "numbered" umpires it was like old home week. He was a former township resident, now serving time for wife slaying.

ENFORCEMENT OF SANITARY LAWS WILL BE DEMANDED

Property owners in the Irvington Sanitary District were warned this week by the Sanitary Board that they must either connect all residences with the sewer lines, where available, or face court action.

Board members reported that numerous homes in the recently annexed Mission San Jose area have failed to comply with the ordinance and are subject to legal action.

They pointed out that the Sanitary Ordinance, adopted by the District effective January 12, 1926, states: "It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to maintain any septic tank, cess pool or privy vault on any land fronting on any public street, roadway or sewer right-of-way in which there is a public sewer, or within 300 feet of such sewer, for any period of time longer than 120 days after acceptance of the sewer by the sanitary board."

The ordinance goes on to state: "Any person violating any provision of this ordinance is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment in the county jail at the rate of a day for every $2."

One arrest has already been made and the board members indicated that similar action is to be taken with other violators following this week's warning.

TWO NEW CLASSES FOR NIGHT SCHOOL

The Washington Evening School, already operating with a record enrollment, will open two additional classes next week and divide one of the current classes into two sections, according to Warren Gravestock, principal.

On October 24, a new class in welding will be opened with Louis Joseph in charge. The class will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays.

A class in Portuguese has been scheduled to meet each Tuesday and Thursday evening beginning October 25 with Mrs. Maria Brazil as instructor.

Due to the large enrollment in the commercial classes the hour in typing each evening has been shifted from the bookkeeping and shorthand periods to a separate class with Paul Powers as instructor.

IRVINGTON SHOP ADDS NEW EQUIPMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haynes, owners and operators of the Township Cleaners, 137 Mission Street, Irvington, have completed the installation of more than $1,200 in new equipment.

The Haynes, who have operated their plant in Irvington for 17 years, have added the latest type of steam pressing devices and pressure systems and re-arranged the interior of their shop. A new delivery truck has also been purchased by the couple.

ATTEMPT TO SHIFT FRAUD TRIALS IS DENIED IN HAYWARD

An endeavor by Edward R. Plotner, Oakland attorney, to obtain a change of venue and move the trials of 27 steel workers to another township was blocked Tuesday by Judge Jacob Harder Jr., Hayward Justice.

Plotner, who represents the local steel workers charged with fraud, blamed newspaper publicity and common discussion for prejudice which he said existed in "a substantial number of citizens of Eden Township."

WILL FOLLOW SCHEDULE

Judge Harder not only denied his motion for change of venue, but also denied a subsequent motion that the court's rulings be appealed to Superior Court for consideration.

As a result, the trials will go on as scheduled on separate days between now and November 23.

The steel workers are charged with fraudulently accepting unemployment compensation checks while they were employed at the Pacific States Steel Mill. Ten of the men entered pleas of guilty last week and were sentenced to serve one day for each dollar they swindled.

The first of the group of 27 entering a plea of not guilty went on trial Monday. He is Bernard A. Lobato of 707 Fifth Street, Decoto. A jury of three women and nine men deliberated less than an hour in returning a verdict of guilty and Lobato was given the maximum jail sentence of six months by Judge Harder.

It was the following morning that Attorney Plotner filed his request for a change of venue.

DELAYED BY SICKNESS

The second day's trial, that of Jesus M. Rodriguez, Sixth and D Streets, Decoto, opened Tuesday but was halted in the afternoon due to an illness occurring in the family of Attorney Plotner. Judge Harder continued the case until Thursday, scheduling it to follow the trial of Abel Jiminez, 803 Tenth Street, Decoto, who faces similar charges.

THIEVES WORK NEW ANGLE IN STORES

A new twist in thievery was worked in at least a couple of township grocery stores last week by two men and a woman.

It apparently worked like this: The three came up to the check-out counter when no other customers were around. One stood near the cash register and the other two along the counter. Just as the clerk opened the cash register one of them asked for a candy bar.

Then, as the clerk turned to get the candy, the man standing close to the cash register reached in and grabbed a handful of paper money.

In one of the stores the theft, discovered when receipts were totaled after closing, amounted to more than $70.

START WORK ON NEW NILES CHURCH

The construction of a new Four Square Church was begun in Niles this week at 965 First Street.

George H. Bunting, contractor and husband of the pastor, Mrs. Adeline Bunting, expects the $17,000 structure to be completed by the first of the year.

The building will include an auditorium with a capacity of 150, Sunday school quarters and dressing rooms.

POWER FAILURE LAID TO LIGHT RAINFALL

A light drizzle which amounted to but .15 of an inch, according to Manuel Swartz, keeper of the rain gauge at the Southern Pacific depot, Niles, fell in this area Sunday night.

The light rain caused a power blackout in most communities of the township. Officials of the P. G. & E. reported that the light drizzle settled on the dust on the insulators of the poles, causing arcs that resulted in pole fires. They said that a heavier rainfall would have washed the insulators free of dust and no damage would have resulted.

Steel Strike Causes Westvaco Shutdown

The first pangs as a result of the wide-spread steel strike will be felt in Washington Township today when the production plant of Westvaco Chemical Division of the Food Machinery & Chemical Corporation at Newark begins its three-day process of shutting down operations.

W. W. Bolton, personnel manager, said yesterday that the plant operation would be completely curtailed by 8 a.m. Monday.

LOCAL STEEL MILL CONTINUES OPERATION

The Pacific States Steel Mill at Niles this week continued in full-scale operation despite a wide-spread steel strike throughout the nation.

A company official said yesterday that they are hopeful that the local union will not be called out.

In the 1947 nation-wide strike the local mill continued to operate and when terms were agreed upon by the unions and operators the local workers received the benefit of the new agreement.

PATTERSON NAMED TO COUNTY FLOOD CONTROL BOARD

W. D. Patterson, president of the Alameda County Water District, has been named to the nine member advisory committee of the new Alameda County Flood Control District by Supervisor Chester E. Stanley.

The Board of Supervisors, after making the appointments, set October 18 at 3 p.m., as the date for an organization and policy-making meeting with the group.

WILL STUDY WATER NEEDS

The district, created by the Legislature and legally set up October 1, is to operate on a $35,000 budget for this fiscal year. Money is raised through a one-half cent tax rate on all Alameda County property owners.

Chief duty of the advisor committee is to arrange for surveys of county water sheds and recommend zones needing flood control and water conservation work. An engineer is expected to be appointed to conduct the surveys.

As required by the legislative bill creating the district, the advisory committee membership provides for three members from incorporated sections and six from unincorporated areas.

MEMBERS NAMED

The board consists of: Charles Long, rancher, Hayward; A. A. Oliver Sr., Mt. Eden, salt company operator; A. L. Christensen, rancher, San Lorenzo (all named by Supervisor George Janssen).

William D. Patterson, Newark, president of the Washington Township water district; Rasmus Hansen, Livermore rancher and oil distributor; Victor Lund, Pleasanton cattleman (named by Supervisor Chester Stanley).

Patrick McDonough, Oakland steel manufacturer, selected by Supervisor Clifford Wixson.

Carl Froerer, Alameda City Manager, picked by Supervisor Harry Bartell.

Weldon L. Richards, Berkeley city councilman and civil engineer, chosen by Supervisor Thomas Caldecott.

P.T.A. TO SPONSOR PUBLIC CARNIVAL

The Washington Union High School P.T.A. will sponsor a public carnival at the school on the evening of October 29 with Mrs. Stella Benbow and Bryce Phillips as co-chairmen of arrangements.

The student body of the school this week nominated four candidates for Carnival Queen. Competing for the crown are: Erleene Zimmerman, Centerville; Mitzie Zeisse, Sunol; Elaine Borge, Irvington, and Emma Jean Ferrell, Niles.

Weather permitting, the booths and stands will be erected outdoors and the folk dancing groups will entertain in the gymnasium.

"The curtailment effects only plant workers at this time," Bolton said, stating that approximately 120 persons would be laid off temporarily, but would be called back and the plant put back into production "immediately" upon settlement of the steel strike.

MARKET CUT OFF

He pointed out that the shutdown of steel plants throughout the nation has cut off the market for the chemical plant's major product, magnesium oxide, a refractory material that is used in making bricks that line open hearth furnaces.

The layoff is being made according to seniority, with the longest-time employees being retained to operate as a skeleton maintenance and shipping crew.

With the exception of an eight-hour shutdown three years ago, today's curtailment marks the first time since the plant opened in 1929 that production has been halted.

HOPEFUL OF SETTLEMENT

In a letter handed to all employees on Monday evening, W. K. Wallace, western manager for the company stated:

"It is indeed a regrettable duty to inform you that, due to the shutdown of the major portion of this plant for at least the last two weeks of October, we must curtail the operating force to a skeleton crew. This shutdown has been forced upon us by a lack of sales outlets for our principal product, due to the present steel strike.

"We have been operating the plant since October 2nd at a minimum and uneconomic rate in the hope that we could resume normal sales and could thereby prevent a complete shutdown and keep you on the job. That hope has now faded to an impossibility. The comparatively few men remaining at work will be necessary to maintain shipping schedules to our other customers.

"We are very appreciative of your past services and will schedule your return just as soon as possible. You will shortly receive another notice from the Personnel Department giving you the details on such items as insurance and hospitalization. We are also arranging for a representative to visit the plant to assist you with unemployment insurance during the shutdown.

"We sincerely hope, both for your sake and ours, that this shutdown will be of only short duration."

REVEAL NEED HERE FOR SCOUT LEADERS

A campaign to recruit and train adult leaders for Girl Scout troops in Washington Township will open here Tuesday under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Oswald, field director from the Hayward Area Council, which is the headquarters for the local troops.

Mrs. Oswald has reported that there are 124 girls in the township desiring membership in the Girl Scouts but because of insufficient number of leaders it has not been possible to activate troops. She stated that when eight or more women here are willing to take the leader training course she will come here daily to conduct classes.

Mrs. Anna Mayock, public relations director for the current Community Chest Campaign, pointed out yesterday that this service is one of many made possible through the funds raised during the Red Feather drive.

She went on to say that of the $1,990 budgeted from the Red Feather funds for Girl Scouts, $1,790 goes to pay administrative expense of field directors, training leaders, recruitment and camp maintenance, covering this area's pro-rata of the total expense for the entire area served by the Council.

At the LIBRARY

By ELAINE HOWE

A new book on showers reminds me of the frequent occasions when one or another of you come in to consult an etiquette book. The shower isn't the kind that makes your garden grow, but the kind you give the bride-to-be, or the mother-in-law. The book is "Shower Parties for All Occasions" by Helen Webster, and there are showers for engagement, anniversary, birthday, baby, or going-away. The parties are described complete with decorations, games, menus and appropriate presents. It's really not such a chore to give a shower with this book at hand.

Speaking of etiquette, there are many times when you may wish to check up on—say—the correct way to accept a formal wedding invitation, or the proper form of address for a widow. Perhaps you have to co-hostess a tea or be in the receiving line at a big function. These are details which few of us keep in mind all the time, but want to be sure of at the appropriate moment.

Emily Post we have always with us. Ever since 1922 when she published her first "Etiquette" she has been THE authority on all matters pertaining to manners. She believes that "good manners are less a matter of rules than a sensitive awareness of the needs of others."

Conservative to a degree, Mrs. Post has been in part replaced or at least modernized by newer authorities such as Margery Wilson whose "The New Etiquette" is called the modern code of social behavior. She covers all the usual items plus servants, entertaining—how to eat and how to serve wines, traveling and tips—always a troublesome point, and Gladys Cronkite Giles. Future classes promise demonstrations accompanying the interesting lectures. The class will meet each Monday evening from now through December 12 in the high school cafeteria from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

PRESBYTERIAN ACTIVITIES

A special Sunday evening service will be held at the Centerville Presbyterian Church, conducted by students of the San Anselmo Theological Seminary at 7:30 p.m. Colored pictures will be shown by Mr. Dick Stanley, taken while in Montana, showing the Home Mission, ranches and conditions in which the people live. Mr. Jim Scott, also from the Seminary, will lead the congregation in songs.

At the Ladies' Aid meeting last Thursday afternoon plans were further toward the bazaar and food sale to be held on Saturday, October 29, from 1 p.m. on, in the office of the Alameda County Water Company. The Ruth Circle will meet Wednesday, October 19, at 8 p.m. at their usual place of meeting.

AT SORORITY MEETING

DANCE AND CARD PARTIES SET FOR DE GUADALUPE

even a bit on children's etiquette. There are also chapters on official etiquette (when next you are called to Washington), business and club etiquette and necessary observations in sports such as golf and tennis. Her point of view is casual and relaxed in the modern manner.

For special problems we have "Vogue's Book of Brides" which carries the engaged girl right up to the altar with all details of dress, presents, photographs and decorations.

The young of the species sometimes amaze us with their consistent disregard of what we consider rudimentary good manners. If you have such problems, I recommend Stevens' "The Correct Thing," a guide book of etiquette for young men, and "Behave Yourself!" etiquette for American youth by Betty Allen and Mitchell Briggs.

CARDOZA ATTENDS STATE CONCLAVE

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

Have you ever been in a grove of redwood trees and felt awe-struck and completely impressed by their immensity?

That's exactly the way I felt this week when I stood in the freezing department of Berchem's slaughter house in Newark looking up at the hundreds of carcasses hanging from the ceiling. Row after row of them, varying in size from 400 pounds up... all waiting for the eventual butchering that will make them into steaks and roasts.

If you're sentimental, you might allow yourself to feel a few pangs of sympathy for the cattle which, a couple of days before, had been contentedly munching in the stockyard.

But it's best not to think of the sentimental side of it, and rather concern yourself with the altogether fascinating experience of touring the slaughter "chambers."

Who would ever believe that such a placid thing as a cow would ever become emotional over the imminence of death?

But the cattle, says John Berchem, seem to sense the approach of death and quite often become very balky as they walk up the gangplank—the "last mile," so to speak. They become so stubborn, in fact, that it is very often necessary to use a stick with a few volts of electricity in it as a persuader.

Then the cows are shot between the eyes with a .22—quite a painless experience, actually.

They are then put in the slaughter house and stripped of their hides which, incidentally, are laid in big stacks with rock salt between them and cured for a few weeks.

The slaughter room itself would put a housewife's kitchen to shame. It is spotless.

I was there in the late afternoon after the slaughtering was over and there wasn't a spot of blood anywhere!

What surprised me was the fact that an inspector is on the premises at all times during the slaughtering, to inspect the cattle as they are slaughtered. It's government regulations.

I left the place, giving a backward glance to a few mournful looking cattle who would write "finis" to their lives on the morrow. I wonder, but neglected to ask, if the creatures were given one last big farewell feed before their execution.

ANY KINDRED SPIRITS?

Because of all the new people coming into the township I like to put out feelers now and then to find out if there are any kindred spirits among them. I like to meet new people who feel about things the same as I do.

So if your feelings tally with mine on any of these peculiarities listed below, then you and I should know each other.

(a) In movies I do not concern myself with the love-making of the hero and heroine, but rather with speculations on whether or not the hero wears a toupee. For example, the other evening at "Top o' the Morning," I devoted a good 15 minutes in speculating on whether or not Bing Crosby's toupee covered one half or two-thirds of his head—or possibly three-fourths. Before I knew it, the picture was over and I had not yet decided the matter. I was also under considerable suspense—not aroused by the plot—but rather because I was in constant fear that somehow the toupee would come askew.

(b) Every now and then I take books from the library that deal with very "deep" subjects, not only to impress the librarian but it is nice to have these books strewn around carelessly on the tables when callers come. Once in a while I open one—and promptly fall asleep!

(c) I have read so many articles on "being a good listener" that the thing has boomeranged on me. I have developed listening to the extent that now I find myself unable to talk! Unfortunately, I met another woman recently who also must have read these articles on being a good listener. There was a stalemate. Both of us just sat forward on our chairs with that eager-eyed look on our faces (the symbol of a good listener) waiting for the other to open the conversation.

There never was any conversation. Now I am of the firm opinion that magazines should stop publishing these articles on being a good listener.

SELECT DATES FOR CHURCH BAZAAR

The executive committee for the annual St. Joseph's Church Bazaar met Monday evening at the home of Walter Connolly in Irvington and selected Friday and Saturday, November 18 and 19, as the dates for the annual bazaar.

Connolly said yesterday that this year's event will feature the same popular entertainment of former bazaars on both evenings. The money raised from the affair will be used to replaster and repaint the interior of the church. He stated that thus far this year there has been $11,000 spent repairing the exterior of the church and priest house, the bulk of that money coming from bazaars given in past years.

IRVINGTON FIRE AUXILIARY ELECTS

The ladies of the Auxiliary of the Irvington Fire Department met at the fire house Wednesday evening and installed new officers to serve during the coming year.

Installed by Mrs. Mae Raymond were: Belinda Sylvia, president; Wanda Leal, vice-president; Anne Rose, secretary; Pearl Guardanapo, treasurer, and Evelyn Peixotto, sergeant-at-arms.

The new president appointed the following chairmen: Mary Rose, cards; Lucille Day, publicity.

Mrs. Sylvia and Elsie Rogers received awards for perfect attendance at meetings during the past year. Retiring President Evelyn Peixotto was presented a set of crystal glasses and Mrs. Raymond was the recipient of an imported Swiss hankie, the 66th in her collection.

Two new members, Georgia Leather and Anne Faria, were inducted into the organization and Mrs. Ethel Merrill of Irvington was announced as the recipient of a large basket of groceries.

MOTORCYCLE MISHAP HOSPITALIZES TWO

An accident between two motorcycles on Sunday in Centerville resulted in serious injuries to two youths.

The injured are George Geer, San Lorenzo, and Harold McCartney, San Leandro, who were in Centerville visiting relatives. The accident occurred in front of the John Lewis home on Central Avenue when Geer attempted to turn into the driveway and McCartney, who was following, ran into the head machine. Both men were rushed to Fairmont Hospital in the Dallas Paul ambulance.

The counties of San Francisco, Marin, Napa and Contra Costa meet in the middle of San Pablo Bay.

CENTERVILLE SCHOOL

Nemo, the safety clown, presented a program at the Centerville school on Friday morning, Sept. 30. He was accompanied by Officer Cunningham of the California Highway Patrol, Mr. Watt of the Kiwanis Club of Hayward, and Mr. George Oakes of Centerville.

Students in charge of arrangements were Tommy Krueger, Felipe Baltierra, Tommy Kleine, Glenn Lewis and Robert Rehrig.

Nine elementary schools, Alvarado, Centerville, Decoto, Irvington, Newark, Niles, Warm Springs, Tennyson and Mt. Eden, participated in the girls' volleyball tournament held at the Centerville Elementary School on Thursday, October 6.

Arrangements were completed by Mrs. Grace Ricketts, county superintendent of schools office, Mrs. Alice Lambrecht, Mr. T. P. Maloney, and teachers and principals of those schools participating.

NILES GIRLS WIN PARADE AWARDS

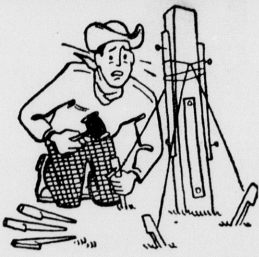

Two little Niles girls, Patricia and Beverly Souza, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Souza, 313 Third Street, won honors in the annual Pet Parade in Hayward last Friday.

The girls won fifth place in the costume division, but must return to Hayward today to receive their prizes. The awards will be made at the Recreation Building this afternoon.

To Beverly, 10, taking part in parades is old business, this year's event marking the third parade for this little lady. Her 7-year-old sister, Patricia, was competing in her second parade contest.

Patricia's outfit was modeled after Little Bo Peep's attire and Beverly was dressed as a Dutch girl. Both of the girls' costumes were made by their mother.

The Maurice Leal family of Santos Avenue had a three-way celebration last Saturday as there were three birthdays in the family, all falling within nine days of each other. Mr. and Mrs. Leal and their daughter, Arleen, were the celebrants.

Arleen had her party in the afternoon, while the senior Leals chose Saturday evening for partying with their friends. Those invited for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Avilla, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harrig, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis, and the Melvin Silvas and Chick Vargases.

The members of the Past President's Club of St. Jude's Institute, Y.L.I., Irvington, met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Misener, combining a business meeting with a baby shower for the hostess.

The new mother was presented with a clever arrangement of 14 one-dollar bills arranged in fan shape from a pair of baby shoes. President Anne Perry presided over the business meeting which followed the social hour. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bertha Rose.

Still Like Niles

Mr. and Mrs. William Cull were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martinelli, former Niles residents, who now live in Walnut Creek.

Although the Martinellis like their lovely home in Walnut Creek, their hearts are really in Niles, and they read The Register every week to keep up on the local news.

LORETTA LEWIS AND BRIDEGROOM ON HONEYMOON; TO LIVE IN SAN LEANDRO

White stock, tied with white satin ribbon, decorated the aisle of Corpus Christi Church last Sunday when Loretta Lewis walked toward an altar banked with white gladiolas and white chrysanthemums, to become the bride of Albert J. Rosenga Jr.

Her sister, Charlotte, was maid of honor. She was attired in a burgundy satin gown, wearing a wreath of orchid carnations in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet.

The bridesmaids, Edna Lewis, Loretta Rosenga and Shirley Kraft, were in orchid carnation satin, and wore burgundy headpieces.

The bride herself was in a stunning white satin original model, styled with bustle effect, the yoke of venetian lace, and the sleeves closely fitted, and the skirt sweeping into a two-yard-long scalloped train.

Venetian lace comprised her Juliette cap, which held in place a finger-tip French illusion veil. White orchids, stephanotis, and bouvardia combined her bridal bouquet, with which she carried a white mother-of-pearl rosary, which was sent directly from the Vatican with the Pope's seal on it.

to the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. E. Renetti, who lent it to the bride for the occasion.

Her mother, Mrs. L. L. Lewis, chose a teal satin afternoon dress, with which she wore brown accessories and a bronze orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Al Rosenga, selected a grey crepe afternoon frock, with navy accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Renetti was gowning in a toast-colored ensemble, enhanced by an orchid corsage.

John Way was best man, while usher duties were fulfilled by Hector Caraballo, Bill Smith and Ronald Warden.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds received at a reception at the Veterans Memorial Building in Niles, where a crowd of almost 600 gathered to felicitate the happy pair.

For her going-away costume, the new Mrs. Rosenga chose a forest-green gabardine, with brown accessories, and a winter-white felt hat with a forest green plume.

After a two weeks' honeymoon at Palm Springs, the couple will return to make their home in San Leandro.

MEMBERS OF DECOTO DISCUSSION GROUP ENJOY READING OF WORLD'S POETS

By ETHEL AVILLA

"Poetry is not the assertion that something is true, but the making of that truth more fully real to us,"—T. S. Eliot.

The enjoyment which comes from the appreciation of poetry was fully realized last Wednesday when members of the Decoto Discussion Group read poems of their selection at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Musick. Selections from Oliver Wendell Holmes, Poe, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Masfield, Joaquin Miller and Keats were read and some of the members prepared short biographical sketches of the poets lives which were very interesting.

A delicious luncheon served by the hostess preceded the readings.

The group will meet at the home of Mrs. William Zaddon in San Leandro on November 2, who will entertain with the luncheon. In the afternoon the group will attend the annual art exhibit at the Frates and Stanhope Art Center in Hayward.

Guests of K. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Connolly of Irvington were guests at the ladies night dinner meeting at Pland's last Wednesday of the Hayward Council of the Knights of Columbus. Mr. Connolly is the Grand Knight of the township council.

ROBERT McIVOR AND BRIDE ENROUTE TO OREGON FOR A WEEK'S HONEYMOON

White satin was selected by Pauline Nickas for her wedding gown when she became the bride of Robert McIvor at ceremonies performed last Sunday at the Presbyterian Church in Center-ville.

Her gown was fashioned with lace yoke, with the same lace on the sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her finger-tip illusion veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia, carnations, and orchid.

Her sister, Mrs. Sophie Quartaroli, in the matron-of-honor role, was attired in yellow taffeta brocade, and carried yellow carnations tied with green satin ribbon. The bridesmaids, Shirley Butler and Mary Ann McIvor, were in reverse colors with apple green taffeta brocade, carrying apple green carnations tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Al Kiep was the best man and ushers were James Griffin and Orbie Robertson. The bride's godfather, Gus Puopulus, gave her in marriage.

Wedding music was played by Dwight Thornburg.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. William Nickas chose a grey suit with black accessories, and wore a baby rose corsage.

Mrs. Robert McIvor, the bridegroom's mother, was in an afternoon dress of green, with black accessories. She, too, wore a corsage fashioned of roses.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Country Club House where Jed Oxborrow and his band entertained the guests.

The newlyweds then left for a week's honeymoon in the north-west.

The fifth grade social studies unit at present is California. It proves to be of great interest this year because of the Centennials.

Some of our members have left for other states. We are very sorry to lose Gerald Vargas, who has moved to Oregon, and June Pardini, who has gone to Nevada.

Spelling honor roll members in the intermediate grades were: Sandra Gold, Paul Santos, Philip Kinsley, Virginia Zook, Berry Williams, Peter Zook, Jacqueline Santos and Harold Briar.

Warm Springs won its first league game against Sunol Glen. We won by a score of 6 to 4 in a close and exciting football game at Sunol.

Game captain was Oscar Pickering. James Sanford made the touchdown for Warm Springs. We used a 5-3 defense while Sunol used a 4-4. Sunol scored on two touchdowns.

Mr. Pickering helped with the transportation for the squad, and enjoyed the game very much, naturally, since he had two stalwart sons on the team.

Timmy Wagner sprained his right wrist on the last play of the game. He will be out of practice for about a week.

The lineup was: James Sanford, lg; Harvey Pickering, lh; Ronald Schlosser, le; Bobby Fix, c; Oscar Pickering, fb; John Yeakey, rg; Tim Wagner, rh; Clyde Marks, re.

Warm Springs girls' volleyball team played in the tournament at Centerville, and lost to Decoto and Centerville. The team lineup was: Lorraine Coelho, Genevieve Brennan, Lucille Wagner, Alice Fix, Gay Richards, Frances McLelland, Helen Jones, Rochelle Gold. Due to hard luck the girls had to play without aid of their coach, Miss Moseley, who was coaching the boys at the Sunol game.

Posters are being made by the upper grades for the Benefit Dance which is going to be held on Oct. 22 at Warm Springs School. The money collected is to be used for the mid-morning lunch for the first and second graders.

HOUSEWIFE TAKES OVER NEW DUTIES

Women drivers, who have borne the brunt of masculine "remarks" about their abilities when behind the wheel of an automobile, this week won a round in the verbal battle, thanks to Mrs. A. J. Bettencourt of the Alviso District.

Shocking as it may seem to the masculine "masters of the road," Mrs. Bettencourt is now a full-fledged, licensed and competent school bus driver, the first of her sex to achieve such an accomplishment in this area.

Mrs. Bettencourt, a petite brunette, said this week that she would have thought anyone crazy who would have told her two months ago that she was going to become a bus driver. However, the Alviso School had a new bus and no driver and as the date for the opening of school approached and it became apparent that many pupils might have to walk several miles, Mrs. Bettencourt agreed to take on the task.

Through the help of James Nunes, school principal, Mrs. Bettencourt began learning the intricacies of the operation of a bus. Two weeks ago she went to the office of the State Highway Patrol and passed her examination with flying colors.

Now, sandwiched in between household duties, she drives four round trips a day for a total of

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR CHILD HEALTH PROGRAM

Florence Matthews, Billie Nielsen and Doris Souza of Canyon Heights have volunteered to assist in the work of the Child Health Conference, a P.T.A. sponsored project established in Niles two years ago. The volume of preschool children attending these clinics has increased to such an extent that additional workers are urgently needed. Jessie Cole, chairman of the volunteer group, asks that anyone able to spare a few hours every month for this interesting and rewarding work, should get in touch with her or with Miss Mary Boyle of the Alameda County Health Department.

SCOUTS CAMP AT LOS MOCHOS

Southern District Boy Scouts are all set for a week-end of fun, starting tonight (Friday) and ending Sunday evening. They will camp at Los Mochos camp in the Livermore hills.

approximately 20 miles, gathering up the youngsters and returning them home at the end of the school day.

"Discipline of the pupils in the bus, oh, that's no problem to me; you see I have a son and daughter of my own," Mrs. Bettencourt replied with a chuckle when asked if she had any difficulties with the youngsters.

There is but one factor of her new job which does worry the new driver, and, it is also a grave concern to other school bus drivers of the township—it is the failure of motorists to observe the law requiring all cars to stop when a school bus halts to load or unload children.

"The law requires all cars to come to a full stop and then proceed at 10 miles per hour if the road is clear," Mrs. Bettencourt said this week. She said that she has found that truck drivers are the worst violators of that particular law.

OVER A HUNDRED AT ELKS DINNER

Over a hundred Elks will be present at the annual Washington Township Elks dinner to be held this Saturday night at the Veterans Memorial Building in Niles.

The dinner is being prepared by the American Legion Auxiliary of the township.

Members of the Elks on the committee are: Ruel Brown, Frank McGowan, Caesar Di Giulio, A. M. Alves, Bill Estudillo, Harry Weber, Walter Steinmetz, Kenneth Garcia and Dr. Tom Wilson.

In attendance will be the Exalted Ruler and his corps of officers from Alameda.

1. Timber . . . paper . . . copper—we have to buy many things to build and run the telephone system. Last year Western Electric, our principal manufacturer and supplier, bought over 20 million dollars worth of materials in the West. More than half of each dollar we take in goes for employees. Most of it is spent and goes into circulation where they work and live.

3. When you add it all up, you find the money you spend for service comes back, in large part, to you. And your telephone dollars are buying more service than ever. Today you can call more of the people you want to call . . . more can call you. And your telephone still does its jobs for only a few pennies a call.

2. More than 80,000 of those whose savings built the business . . . who own telephone stock . . . live in the West. In return for the use of their money, a few pennies of each telephone dollar go to them. And as they spend it, they also add to Western prosperity. It would probably be hard to find anyone who does not in some way benefit from the money we spend.

IRVINGTON PLANS INDUSTRIAL SURVEY

An industrial relations committee to compile information for industries that might desire a site near Irvington, was appointed Tuesday by Vice-President Allan Hirsch at the luncheon meeting of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.
Named to compile the data were Lee Williams, Allan Hirsch and Carl Christensen.
The Chamber invited Gus Robertson, school principal, to bring a student as a guest of the businessmen to various meetings of the group. The Chamber also accepted Robertson's invitation to have lunch at the school cafeteria on Thursday, October 20. The businessmen, who will pay for their own lunch, will have the same fare furnished the students.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

Many a rosy picture has been painted in recent years about the constantly increasing level enjoyed by Americans.

Greater income is one thing but what is left of that income either in purchasing power or even face dollar value is quite another. For the insatiable tax appetite of government has grown with such frightening rapidity in the last two decades that a drastic treatment surely is necessary to get at the administrative tapeworm and more public dollars. Otherwise, the time may soon come when those who work for the money upon which government feeds will find that it demands almost all of what they earn.

This is not an attempt to "cry wolf." To the contrary, disquieting figures compiled by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and others show that the tax burden is mushrooming constantly. "In the last 18 years," Earle V. Grover, president of the L. A. Chamber of Commerce, points out, "taxes imposed by local governments have increased from $4,500,000,000 to about $7,000,000,000—about 55 per cent."

"During the same period, state taxes increased from $1,900,000,000 to $8,000,000,000—an increase of more than 24 times!" That is an increase of 2400 per cent! "It is imperative that individual citizens, as well as civic organizations concerned with tax matters, direct more of their attempts to reduce local and state taxes, and it is of paramount importance that we do not overlook efforts to cut down the lion's share imposed by the federal government," Grover concluded.

Almost everyone is familiar with the obvious methods used by government to separate the citizen from his dollars—income, sales, property, corporation, and franchise taxes—but hidden levies are another matter. Larry F. Kreger, president of the Kreger manufacturing Company, offers some interesting facts in this regard. For instance, on women's hosiery selling for $1.50, the government collects 50 cents.

People complain about the high cost of housing, yet for a $10,000 home, labor runs about $3000, material $4000, and taxes $3000! A quart of milk would cost 13 cents—except for an additional eight cents in taxes. A medium-

CENTERVILLE P.T.A. DRIVE IS UNDERWAY

Tom Maloney, principal of the Centerville Elementary School, announced this week that the current membership drive now underway by the P.T.A. is proving very successful with many new members being added.

He reported that annual dues for mother and father are $1.35 and dues for single memberships are $1. He urges that anyone wishing to join before the roster is compiled bring or send his dues to the school before the next meeting to be held Tuesday, October 25.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE FOR B.P.W. CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's Club, meeting last Monday night, mapped plans for a membership drive that will be carried on through the month of October. Plans for the Christmas party were also discussed.

The next meeting, held during Business Women's Week, will be at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Enos.

HENRY ENOS IS NEW PRESIDENT OF PROMENADERS

Henry Enos was elected to be the new president of The Promenaders, a local folk dancing group. He succeeds N. K. Turnbow, former president.

Other new officers are: Vice-president, Wayne Day; secretary, Maurice Marks; and treasurer, Tom Robbins.

The election was held at a monthly party of the group last Saturday evening. Host and hostess for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robbins.

ADULT GIRL SCOUTS CHANGE MEETING DATE

The district meeting date of Adult Girl Scouts of Washington Township has been changed from Thursday to the first Friday of every month. The meetings will be held in the same location, the Country Club of Washington Township.

priced automobile would sell for $1400—except for the $700 which the government wants. A $150 refrigerator is taxed $75. Of the three dollars paid for baby shoes, one dollar is tax. So it goes.

In a loaf of bread, the Tax Foundation states, there are hidden 151 state and federal taxes!

The Tax Foundation also reports that there are 116 state and federal taxes hidden in a man's summer suit—and as is the case with the loaf of bread, this does not even include the local taxes which are hidden away!

Is it any wonder that America's tax bill hit an all-time record in 1948—$54,500,000,000 for the fiscal year.

The Census Bureau reports that this averaged $375 per person. That is a record, too.

Here is the way the government's "take" breaks down:

Individual income taxes amounted to $19,800,000,000—more than one third of the total collected.

Sales and gross receipts taxes and customs accounted for $12,100,000,000 in 1948, a 113 per cent increase over 1942.

Corporation income taxes collected were $10,300,000,000.

While the federal government took far and away the largest slice of tax revenues, the greatest single source of local government income was property taxes—$5,900,000,000 last year, an increase of 35 per cent over 1942.

Commenting on the governments' ever-increasing spending tendency, Herbert U. Nelson writes in Headlines, official publication of the National Association of Real Estate Boards: "Without any real financial control, politicians are on a joy-ride which can only end in a crash-up. So as to spend faster, they even consider dumping the dollar in order to chase the bubble currencies of other countries."

"Our differences of political faith are not so much of the 'right' or 'left' as they are about this matter of spending by the federal government."

As Nelson concludes, "Our people should be allowed by our federal rulers to keep more of their earnings to invest in their own ways of production, homes, and farms to build the true wealth of our country." A high income level is meaningless unless the people are free to spend that income as they see fit!
